

THE BOARD MEETING. SINCE 1919.

THE LEGENDARY MEETING. ONLY AT PEBBLE BEACH. You don't plan A Meeting at Pebble Beach. You plan The Meeting. Since 1919, the exquisite and unmatched beauty of Pebble Beach Resorts on California's Monterey Peninsula has served as the legendary backdrop for company board meetings from around the world. From the intimate, private spaces found throughout our property to the unparalleled service and accommodations, our goal is not to create a great meeting. It's to create The Meeting your board members will never forget.

INSPIRED PRODUCTIVITY

We've heard it time and again from past meeting attendees; there's just something about the atmosphere at Pebble Beach Resorts that yields inspired thinking and new ideas. It's how the environment itself promotes personal engagement, relaxed privacy and unhindered productivity. It's something that is difficult to describe, but easy to experience for yourself; by planning your next board meeting at Pebble Beach.

THE PERFECT SETTING

Simply stated, Pebble Beach is the ideal setting for a board meeting. The stately and intimate settings on-site provide the perfect environment for your board members, while the unmatched beauty and easy access provided by our location on the California coast provides unlimited options for the hours spent outside your meeting.

CUSTOM-TAILORED SERVICE

Truly exceptional service is not about meeting needs. It's about anticipating your group's needs and going above and beyond to exceed them. And that is exactly what we provide at Pebble Beach. It's a unique approach to service that you will find nowhere else. From our waiters to our golf staff, Pebble Beach employees resort-wide are trained experts in providing your groups with truly exceptional service, without being intrusive or overbearing.
